Discussion of materials provided to committee members at the previous meeting of the committee and compilation of report. Attorney Vlado Vranjes reviewed a template provided by the state and generated a document for review. Vlado also included a report from a surrounding suburb for an example. Only written agreements are included in the report. The Efficiency Committee was formed on the 5th of June and the Park District has 18 months from the inception date to adopt a report. Vlado stated the draft of the report will be ready by October. Vlado will work with the Board as well as Executive Director Lianne Robinette if need be. The report needs to be filed with the County Board. The Efficiency Committee will include recommendations for increased accountability and efficiency in this report.

At 6:59 Derek Gordon joined the meeting.

Steve Busa would like to have any questions Vlado may have be answered by October 1st so he can get the draft done by the 15th of October. Once Vlado has the info he will update the draft by October 15. Please get all answered questions to Vlado by October 1st and Vlado will get draft done by the 15th.
